June 22, 2006.

P.C.

An application under Section 33-C(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 has been allowed by the Labour Court and the Petitioner has been directed to pay to the First Respondent an amount of Rs.23,525/-. Consent Terms were arrived at between the parties on 29th March 1996, in Appeal (IC) 85 of 1995 before the Industrial Court by which the Petitioner agreed to reinstate the First Respondent to his post of Semi Clerk in the Folding Department with continuity of service. However, as regards past arrears, the same were to be paid 50% of the gross salary till reinstatement. In view of the order of reinstatement with continuity of service, it was held that the Respondent had a valid and existing right to the benefit of an industrial settlement, which inter alia governed the category of workmen. No case for interference is made out. The Petition is dismissed.
